

Good Morning!

February 5, 2012

WHAT'S IN OUR HYMNAL?

Hymns are not just for singing. They can also be read for reflection, prayer, and inspiration. When we first look at a hymn sometimes it seems to be a lot of words stuck in between lines of music. But what if we focus on just part of the hymn? For example, look at #676, Lord, Speak to Us. Look at only the first line of each verse. Verse 1, "Lord, speak to us, that we may speak." Verse 2, "lead us that we may lead." Verse 3, "teach us that we may teach." And finally Verse 4, "fill us with your fullness." It is because of that overflowing fullness that we can speak, lead, and teach. Enjoy your hymnal!

Our Mission Statement

In the Spirit of Jesus, we share our gifts with our community and world, and invite all to join us on the journey of faith.

The flowers on the Sanctuary

In Gratitude

*If the only prayer you said in your whole life was, "thank you," that would suffice.
